

Big Cat Little Cat

Cuje Bertram

Look to the man who can if he will
Prosper in the valley in the Tennessee hills
He does make liquor and we all take a dram
I'm gonna tell my pretty Polly Ann

Cheese on the wall, beans on the board
Big sack o' corn in, sugar in the gourd
The big cat spit in the little cat's eye
Little cat, little cat, don't you cry

Corn in the crib, butter in the yard
Meat in the smokehouse, a big stand o' lard
Big cat spit in little cat's eye
Little cat, little cat, don't you cry

Cheese the wall, beans on the board
Big sack o' corn in, sugar in the gourd
Big cat spit in the little cat's eye
Little cat, little cat, don't you cry

Corn in the crib, butter in the yard
Meat in the smokehouse, a big stand o' lard
I do like liquor and we all take a dram
I'm gonna tell my pretty Polly Ann

Corn in the crib, butter in the yard
Meat in the smokehouse, a big stand o' lard
Big cat spit in the little cat's eye
Little cat, little cat, don't you cry

Horse in the stable and money in the bucket
Baby in the cradle and a pretty girl to rock it
Big cat spit in the little cat's eye
Little cat, little cat, don't you cry