Did You Ever See the Devil, Uncle Joe?

Fiddlin' Powers & Family

IV I
Cornstalk fiddle and a shoe string bow
V I
Did you ever see the devil, Uncle Joe?
IV I
Short-tailed rabbit and a long-tailed crow
V I
Did you ever see the devil, Uncle Joe?

I
Did you ever see the devil, Uncle Joe, Uncle Joe?
V I
Did you ever see the devil, Uncle Joe?

Railroad, railroad,
Johnson and Parnell
If it had not been for Kaiser Bill
There would not've been no hell

When Old Bob was one and twenty
Old Massa set him free
He give him money plenty
Go on and take a spree

Poppy had a little pig
It yowled when it was born
He fixed it in a brandy keg
Called it Jim Crack Corn

She went up the new cut road
And I went down the ditches
She fell down and tore her skirt
And I tore a hole in my britches